ALL CHANGE IN PARIS

The new textile event Déco Off, running concurrently with Maison et Objet in Paris in January 2010, meant that the éditeurs section of Maison et Objet was considerably smaller this year. This allowed new companies to join the show such as Lalie, with their fun fabric designs and Karin Sajo, Paris. Galerie Diurne appeared in both events with some great, colourful flatweaves while the most beautiful stand award must go to Spanish textile artist Rocio Moreno and Diacasan's Temptation rug on the back of the stand was enticing. New British company Morgan Ashard had some great carpet designs and SoFar/So/Near's new rug paid homage to Johnny Depp! A shake up is often a great thing!
